Numb. 1128

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 7. to Monday September 11. 1676.

Genoua, September 2.

YEsterday arrived here the Lilly Pink of Tarmouth from Villa Franca and Marſeilles, and this day the Unity Capt. Hetcher, in 17 days from Alicant, the Bon Adventure, William Fearmes Maſter, is likewiſe coming in from Amſterdam. The Dutch Squadron of Men of War that was at Palermo, is arrived at Naples, where they are to expect their new General and Succors from Holland.

Cracow, Aug. 13. The Letters which we receive this morning from Leopol, tell us, that the King was arrived within few Leagues of that City, where the Crown General, Prince Demetrius Wiſnowiski, and the Palatine of Ruſſia Lieutenant General expected his Majeſty, in order to the concerting what is to be done for the oppoſing the Enemy. Our Letters from Walachia aſſure us of the death of Ibrahim Baſſa, and that Schietan Baſſa had taken upon him the command of the Army; however it is hoped that this change of their General may occaſion ſome retardment in their march, eſpecially ſince we hear that the Cham of Tararty is dangerouſly ill, and that he hath been forced to leave his Army.

Vienna, Aug. 30. The Count Kinski, the Emperors ſecond Ambaſſador for the Treaty at Nimeguen has orders to part hence forthwith, which he will accordingly do, but has leave to ſtop ſome ſhort time at Prague in Bohemia, to look after his particular concerns. The new Levies are begun in Sileſia and Bohemia, for the recruiting the Regiments in Hungary, where the Rebels continue very much to diſturb the peace of that Kingdom. We are ſtill in expectation to hear who will be the Imperial Bride, the diſcourſe at Court is of the Princeſs of Denmark and the Princeſs of Newburg; but it is believed by all, that his Imperial Majeſty will not declare himſelf in this matter till after the end of this Campagne.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5. The news at preſent here is, that the Sieur Guldenlieu Viceroy of Norway has taken Bahus, the Governor being obliged to ſurrender the ſame for want of Proviſions, and eſpecially of Water. It is added, that the ſaid Sieur Guldenlieu has likewiſe defeated 3000 Suedes. We have Letters from Stockholme of the 26 paſt, which ſay, that the States of that Kingdom were aſſembled there, and that the King had ſummoned the Ban and Arrierban for the defence of the Kingdom. Admiral Tromp cruiſes with the Fleet about the Iſland of Euland. Our King advances with his Forces towards Helmſtadt, where the Suediſh Army ſtill is.

Lubeck, Sept. 10. Here are arrived ſome Paſſengers in two days from Copenhagen by Water, they tell us, that as they were ready to depart, news was brought thither from Schonen, that there had been a Fight between the Suedes and the Danes near Helmſtadt, and that the latter had had the Victory; of which we muſt expect to hear farther. The ſaid Paſſengers knew nothing of the taking of Bahus.

Strasburg, Sept. 7. The French Army under the command of the Duke of Luxemburg, continues at Wiel in Briſgow, where they have abundnce of Forage, and all things neceſſary, but hitherto ſeem not to have any intention to attack Friburg, in which is a very good Gariſon. The Imperial Army lies encamped not far from Offenburg, which place it's ſaid the Duke of Lorrain will cauſe to be demoliſhed, to the end the Enemy may not poſt themſelves there. In the mean time the Count of Arck is marched back with greateſt part of the Imperial Infantry towards Philipsburg, to puſh on that Siege.

Spire, Sept. 8. The general Aſſault upon Philipſburg was not made the 5*th* inſtant, as we told you in our laſt was intended, but an Attack was onely made once more upon the Ravelin, between the Turenne and Dauphin Baſtions, in which the Beſiegers ſucceeded not, having been twice repulſed, with the loſs of above 100 Men killed and wounded, whereupon it was reſolved by the Generals not to make any farther attempt upon the ſaid Ravelin, but to ruine the ſame with force of Cannon, and at the ſame time to advance directly to the Town Walls, and to make a general Aſſault upon the place, and to that end the Beſiegers have theſe two days paſt been employed to lay their Galaries over the great Ditch, in which they have had great oppoſition from the Enemy, who with their Fireworks ſet it ſeveral times on fire, but the Beſiegers ſtill quenched the ſame, and have brought things into ſuch a poſture, that to morrow or next day it's believed the general Aſſault will be made. This day the Prince of Barreyt, who was ſent out with a party, is returned with 200 French Priſoners, having defeated a party ſent out from Deuxponts, to execute the Countrey of Linange and Hardenburg for Contributions due to Philipsburg. We have advice, that the Mareſchal de Crequi has a Body of 15000 Men together on the Saar.

Cologne, Sept. 11. This morning paſſed through this place the Secretary of the Dutch Envoy in the Imperial Army, being ſent Expreſs to give the States an account of the Capitulation of Philipsburg, according to which the Gariſon was to march out on the 15 inſtant. We ſhall however be in great impatience till we hear the place is actually ſurrendred, for the accidents many apprehend may yet happen to hinder it. From Lipſtadt and thoſe parts they aſſure us, that the Lunenburg and Munſter Troops are on their march, commanded by the Duke of Zell in perſon; but the Summer is ſo far ſpent, that no great matters can be expected from them; the and general opinion is, that theſe Troops will onely take for the preſent their quarters about Treves, to be the earlier in the Field next Spring, if a Peace be not concluded in the mean time at Nimeguen.

Bremen, Sept. 12. This Countrey begins at preſent to be ſomewhat eaſed through the departure of the Troops which have by their marches and countermarches almoſt ruined it. The 10*th* inſtant paſſed through this City Lieutenant General Wedel, with the Munſter Infantry, conſiſting in 56 Companies, having with them ſeveral Field-pieces, and a great quantity of Ammunition, and yeſterday followed the Cavalry, compoſed of 36 Troops; they took their march towards Zulinger Heath, to join the Lunenburg Troops, and ſo to continue their march towards the Rhine.

Nimeguen,